

Greater Wilshire Neighborhood Council

Notice of Board Election and Call for Candidates

What is a Neighborhood Council?

In 1999, voters in the City of Los Angeles created a citywide network of grassroots, community organizations called Neighborhood Councils. Homeowners, renters, business owners, workers and others united to form Neighborhood Councils across the City in order to address issues and concerns affecting their neighborhoods.

Who can be Involved?

A person of at least eighteen (18) years of age who fulfills the following criteria is considered to be a "Stakeholder" and is eligible to vote in the 2005 Election:

- A Stakeholder shall mean those who live, work or own property in the Greater Wilshire Neighborhood Council area.
- A Stakeholder shall be any individual who participates in, among other things, educational institutions, religious institutions, community organizations or other non-profit organizations, block clubs, neighborhood associations, homeowners associations, apartment associations, condominium associations, resident associations, school/parent groups, faith-based groups and organizations, senior groups and organizations, youth groups and organizations, chambers of commerce, business improvement districts, service organizations, park advisory boards, boys and girls clubs, cultural groups, environmental groups, code watch, neighborhood watch, police advisory board groups, and/or redevelopment area boards.
- Individuals who live, work, or own property on either side of a boundary street of the Greater Wilshire Neighborhood Council are Stakeholders.

How Can I Register to Vote or Become a Candidate?

To register to vote, you must complete Number 1 and Number 2 of the Stakeholder and Candidate Registration form to the right and submit the form for verification at one of the Election Info Meetings or at the Candidates Forum. You will be required to show proof of stakeholder status for each stakeholder category for which you wish to qualify to vote. To register to become a candidate, complete Numbers 1 through 3 of the Stakeholder and Candidate Registration form and bring the form for verification to either of the Election Info Meeting or to the Candidates Forum. DEADLINE to register as a candidate is May 16, 2005, 8:00 PM. A partial list of forms of identification is listed to the right. Additional Registration forms will be available at the events.
